Communications Position

Riverside Community Council uses the following means of communication:

- Four noticeboards
- Website
- Facebook
- Word of mouth

Information shared includes:

- Riverside Community Council information
- Local information of interest
- Local not-for-profit group events and information
- Stirling Council Information pertinent to Riverside

We do not share or promote information:

- Regarding non-local for-profit businesses
- Relating to political issues
- In violation of our Social Media Policy

All information collected by Riverside Community Council is in compliance with our GDPR Policy and will not be used for marketing purposes.